

2022 STUDENT ANNUAL

Scavenger Hunt

Explore the exhibition looking closely for relationships between artworks. Draw details of some of the examples you find.	Find a portrait. Write about what you think the person in the portrait might be thinking or feeling based on what you see. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	Search for artworks with patterns. Draw and combine the patterns you see to create a new pattern.
If you were to respond to the prompt on the artwork Find Joy, what would you write? Make a list of the people, places or things that bring you joy. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>	 UNIVERSITY GALLERIES of Illinois State University	How many artworks can you find that suggest an interior space? Describe what you see. How does each space make you feel? Write about a room that is important to you. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
With a partner, discuss what the symbols, patterns, and materials in Teacher Madam by Japheth Asiedu-Kwarteng remind you of. What did you and your partner have in common? Were any of your responses different?	Search for an artwork in the exhibition that reminds you of a person, place, or time. Describe how the work prompts this connection.	Analyze the series of small-scale paintings title Masked: A New Tool for the Trade by Karlie Uphoff and Homes Lost: Columbus Drive by Nicci Arnold, a series of prints arranged around a monitor. Describe what you think each work is about based on what you see. Create a series of drawings that illustrates something you do daily.

Use the back of the paper for extra drawing and writing room.
